John Martin's Studio For Brass Instruments

John Martin graduated in 1994 from Concord University (Athens, WV) with a Bachelor of Science in Music Education with a Minor in Trombone with honors in Music. In 1999, John graduated from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (Louisville, KY) with a master's degree in Church Music and Minor in Voice. During his years of undergraduate study, John performed with the Concord University Symphonic Band, Jazz Band, Conchords (Jazz Choir), Collegiate Singers, and was a founding member of its Brass Ensemble. While earning his graduate degree, John performed with the Seminary Winds, Handbell Choir, Chapel Choir, Male Chorale, Seminary Oratorio Chorus, Seminary Vocal Ensemble, and the Seminary Choir. While living in the Danville area, John has performed with Danville Symphony and Southside Region Celebration (interdenominational music group). John has also served both full and part time in churches in West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, North Carolina, and Virginia, recently commemorating 15 years of service at The Tabernacle. John also teaches music full time in the Pittsylvania County Public Schools. He is excited to offer music lessons to brass players in the area.

John offers the following lessons:

- Trumpet/Cornet for beginner and intermediate students.
- Horn in F for beginner and intermediate students.
- Baritone/Euphonium for beginner and intermediate students.
- Trombone for beginner and intermediate students.
- Tuba/Sousaphone for beginner and intermediate students.
